

The Consumer Bankers Association wants to affect Indiana's no-call list to allow member banks and others to telephone individuals on the no-call list. Restrictions on calling Indiana residents should remain intact. Each resident on the no-call list has voluntarily added his/her name to the no-call list, because they do not wish to be bothered with unwanted calls. No legislation or regulation should force individuals to receive calls they do not want.